From the Pastor

June is a month that is packed full of ministry opportunities and activities throughout the church and with our families. Please pray for all of these important areas. There are two separate weeks of church camp for our kids. General Assembly is in Chattanooga, TN., and begins on Father's Day. On Thursday night the 19th, we have a church wide outing to enjoy (Bowling or a movie perhaps). Jefferson County schools finish this Friday (6th) for the summer!! Congratulations to all our students who have worked so hard this year.

I hope you will take time each day this summer to spend with the Lord. Your faith will be strengthened as you spend time in prayer and in the study of the Scriptures. Pentecost (June 8) reminds us of how vital the Holy Spirit is in living a life of grace, mercy, and power. Paul speaks of this in Ephesians 4:22-32, "...in reference to your former manner of life, you lay aside the old self, which is being corrupted in accordance with the lusts of deceit, and that you be renewed in the spirit of your mind, and put on the new self, which in the likeness of God has been created in righteousness and holiness of the truth. Therefore, laying aside falsehood, speak truth, each one of you, with his neighbor, for we are members of one another. Be angry and yet do not sin. Do not let the sun go down on your anger, and do not give the devil an opportunity. ... Let no unwholesome word proceed from your mouth, but only such a word as is good for edification, according to the need of the moment, that it may give grace to those who hear. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. And be kind to one another, tender hearted, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ has also forgiven you." Be a blessing to someone each day.

~ Rev. Rodney

Afterglow...

*I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
of happy times and laughing times and bright sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun of happy memories that I leave when life is done.*

Each year on Memorial Day weekend, our church has a service that reminds us of the cost of our freedoms and Christian right to worship in a free nation. We are truly appreciative of our church family members who served in the military.

Memorial Day Quotes of President Ronald Reagan:

Today, the United States stands as a beacon of liberty and democratic strength before the community of nations. We are resolved to stand firm against those who would destroy the freedoms we cherish. We are determined to achieve an enduring peace -- a peace with liberty and with honor. This determination, this resolve, is the highest tribute we can pay to the many who have fallen in the service of our Nation.

Freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction. We did not pass it to our children in the bloodstream. It must be fought for, protected, and handed on for them to do the same, or one day we will spend our sunset years telling our children and our children's children what it was once like in the United States where men were free.

FATHERS

- "A good father is one of the most unsung, unpraised, unnoticed, and yet one of the most valuable assets in our society." -- Billy Graham, Christian Evangelist
- "The most important thing a father can do for his children is to love their mother." -- Theodore Hesburgh, Priest and President Emeritus of the University of Notre Dame
- "How true Daddy's words were when he said: 'All children must look after their own upbringing.' Parents can only give good advice or put them on the right paths, but the final forming of a person's character lies in their own hands." -- Anne Frank, German Jew and Holocaust Victim
- "It is much easier to become a father than to be one." -- Kent Nerburn, U.S. Author and Educator
- "By the time a man realizes that maybe his father was right, he usually has a son who thinks he's wrong." ---Charles Wadsworth

Dead Sea Gull

A father was at the beach with his children when his four-year-old son Bob ran up to him, grabbed his hand, and led him to the shore, where a seagull lay dead in the sand. "Daddy, what happened to him?" Bob asked. "He died and went to Heaven," the dad replied. Bob thought a moment and then said, "Did God throw him back down?"

After a pastor's wife took her overworked husband to the family physician, the physician took the wife aside and whispered: "I don't like the way your husband looks." "I don't either," she replied, "but he's always been a good father to the children." -George Goldtrap

Someone once said that men are like fine wine. They start out as grapes, and it is up to the women to stomp on them until they turn into something acceptable to have dinner with.

Letters between son and dad

Dear Dad,

$chool i$ really great. I am making lot$ of friend$ and $tudying very hard. With all my $tuff, I $imply can't think of anything I need, $o if you would like, you can ju$t $end me a card, a$ I would love to hear from you.

New and Improved

The little girl was sitting in her grandfather's lap as he read her a story. From time to time, she would take her eyes off the book and reach up to touch his wrinkled cheek. By and by she was alternately stroking her own cheek, then his again.

Finally she spoke, "Granddaddy, did God make you?"

"Yes, sweetheart" he answered, "God made me a long time ago."

"Oh she said," then "Granddaddy, did God make me too?"

"Yes, indeed honey" he assured her. "God made you just a little while ago."

"Oh" she said. Feeling their respective faces again, she observed, "God's getting better at it now isn't he?"

Penny Trick

After tucking their three-year-old child Sammy in for bed one night, his parents heard sobbing coming from his room.

Rushing back in, they found him crying hysterically. He managed to tell them that he had swallowed a penny and he was sure he was going to die. No amount of talking was helping.

His father, in an attempt to calm him down, palmed a penny from his pocket and pretended to pull it from Sammy's ear. Sammy was delighted.

In a flash, he snatched it from his father's hand, swallowed, and then cheerfully demanded, "Do it again, Dad!"

Setting the Table

Little Susan was mother's helper. She helped set the table when guests were due for dinner. Presently everything was on, the guest came in, and everyone sat down. Then Mother noticed something was missing.

"Susan," she said, "You didn't put a knife and fork at Mr. Smith's place."

"I thought he wouldn't need them," explained Susan.

"Daddy says he always eats like a horse!"

Repairing Hearts

A mechanic was removing a cylinder head from the motor of a Harley motorcycle when he spotted a well-known heart surgeon in his shop.

The surgeon was there, waiting for the service manager to come and take a look at his bike.

The mechanic shouted across the garage, "Hey, Doc, can I ask you a question?"

The surgeon a bit surprised, walked over to the mechanic working on the motorcycle. The mechanic straightened up, wiped his hands on a rag and asked, "So Doc, look at this engine. I open its heart, take the valves out, fix 'em, put 'em back in, and when I finish, it works just like new. So how come I get such a small salary and you get the really big bucks, when you and I are doing basically the same work?"

The surgeon paused, smiled and leaned over, and whispered to the mechanic..."Try doing it with the engine running!"

A married couple were celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary in a church social hall. The wife was smiling, but the husband had tears in his eyes. The wife was deeply moved and asked her husband why he was crying.

The husband replied: "Fifty years ago today, your daddy pointed a shotgun at me and said that if I didn't marry you, he'd put me in jail for the next fifty years. If I had listened to him, I'd be a free man tomorrow!"

Surgery

An older gentleman was on the operating table awaiting surgery and he insisted that his son, a renowned surgeon, perform the operation.

As he was about to get the anesthesia, he asked to speak to his son.

"Yes, Dad, what is it?"

"Don't be nervous, son; do your best, and just remember, if it doesn't go well, if something happens to me, your mother is going to come and live with you and your wife...."
